

Welcome Artillerymen

We are honored to present to you this registration packet for the 2009 Northern Ohio NCWAA School of the Piece, being held on June 13, 2009 at Veterans Park, Genoa, Ohio. This is our 3rd Northern Ohio event sponsored by the 21st Ohio Volunteer Light Artillery.

This weekend, whether you are wearing blue or gray, this school is dedicated to the one simple goal: the training of Reenactors in the safe conduct of firing an artillery piece.

The registration area will open at 6:00 PM on Friday, June 12th, and will remain open until 10:00 PM that evening. It will reopen at 7:00 AM on Saturday morning until 9:00 AM.

General Rules and Regulations

1. Use Common Sense – first and foremost.
2. We ask that if you are tenting in the park that you tent in period tents (no modern tents allowed).
3. No camping in the parking lot. Vans, trucks, cars, trailers for guns, motor homes, campers and etc., must use the designated parking area set up by the Genoa Fire Department and Village of Genoa. This will be pointed out to you when you register.
4. Officers and non-commissioned officers will be responsible for the men of their unit at all times.

Artillery Rules and Regulations

1. Artillery units that are traveling more than 10 (ten) hours do not have to bring a gun. Units traveling less than that are asked to bring at least one full-scale or $\frac{3}{4}$ scale gun.
2. No rounds will be used on site. Therefore, we ask that you leave your gun powder at home.
3. All certification and recertification candidates will attend all assigned classes and be duly certified by an artillery inspector to earn certification.
